FORWARD

Two of the most talented football teams outside the W.A.N.F.L. competition meet in today's second semi-final.

Maddington, who were forced to lower their colours only twice — although they did slip to half-mast on one other occasion — clash with Kelmscott, who finished just two points behind them after the qualifying rounds.

The game brings together a vast army of former league players. Names such as Eddie Donnes, Paul Mountain, Bill Woodhams, Rod Mohr, Paul Vasoli, Dennis Cometti and Barry Stockden will ensure the game reaches the heights expected of a second semi-final.

And the battle of wits between Donnes and Cometti — two of the most astute tacticians in the competition — will be a highlight within itself.

The scoreboard between the two sides stands at one-all after their qualifying round games but perhaps Kelmscott's convincing win over the league leaders in the second last game of the year was the most significant result between the two.

In that game Kelmscott convinced the sceptics they were one of the best two sides in the competition, they proved Maddington were not invincible and they exposed the fact that a lot of Maddington's more classy players weren't prepared to do the hard things when the going got tough.

Their fanatical approach to that game brought a little extra out in most players.

Brian Andrijich dominated the ruck, Andy McIntosh out-rovied Paul Mountain, Paul Vasoli was at his explosive best and Paul Hansen was more than a handful for Rod Mohr.

And if Kelmscott are to take the short-cut into the grand final, those players must perform at the same level again.

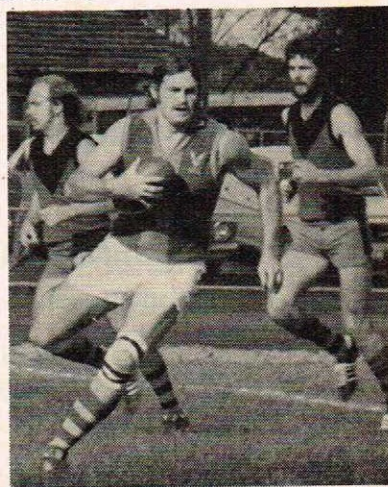

There is no reason why then can't. But the big difference today will be that so many of the Maddington players who were down in the last game will improve.

Barry Stockden will be a greater contributor in the centre, Mountain has regained his sparkle, wingmen, Noel Knight and Ian Saunders will realise they can swing the balance of power across the centre, Mohr plays only one bad game a year and Colin Walker's ruck talents will prevail in the more intense atmosphere.

Maddington undisputedly have a more skilful side and if they can combine that talent with a more desperate attitude they should win. But Kelmscott's claims cannot be denied and their proven ability will ensure this game is one of the highlights of the final round.

The individual clashes alone will generate excitement. Donnes versus the League's leading goal kicker, Jim Butler, Vasoli v's Stockden, Hansen v's Mohr, Walker v's Andrijich, Saunders v's Phil Farmer and Mountain and Colin Tincknell v's Woodhams and McIntosh.

This could well be a preview of the 1976 Grand Final.

TALK OF BULL

This weekend sees our Under 14's and Under 18's contest their respective Grand Finals. We wish them the best of luck and hope that they can bring home the bacon. Members, supporters and players, lets get behind these boys and support them in the manner that they should be supported.

Our league and seconds sides both take on opponents who were victorious against us the last time we played them. In previous premiership years we've won the hard way, let's reverse the tables and win both games today.

Kelmscott were impressive in winning against us three weeks ago. A strong defence, pace around the ground and strength on the ball makes them formidable opponents but I feel sure we will turn in a much better performance today.

Arch rivals Kenwick are always hard to beat in the seconds but once again I feel we can perform better than we did in the last encounter.

Every now and again a club finds themselves lumbered with a group of problem supporters. This seemed to be the case last week with a group of about eight apes (behind the railway end goals) whose sole intention appeared to be to upset the players (including their own) the umpires and other supporters. Even when one of their number was arrested they still persisted. If alcohol has to be consumed it should be done in a car and quietly!!

Our cabaret last week was a good night but it's a pity a few more people didn't turn up. Social Functions are the lifeblood of our clubs and the Association. Everyone should be right behind the organisers, particularly at this time of the season.

Kenwick and Gosnells provided good entertainment last week, I hope the games today are the same and I also trust that the Bulls ensure the chance of a double premiership by winning.

MIGHTY ROYALS

In a match winning first quarter the Royals, with all the Big Guns Firing, (Dale Risely, Stal and Truscott), tore straight into the Hawks and held a 86 point lead at the first change. However, from then on Gosnells gradually worked their way back into the game and but for our defence, which played superbly, the end result could have been reversed. Many of our forward moves were broken up too easily and this left alot of headaches for coach Neil Dedman. With the forwards not capitalising on their opportunities the backline received even greater pressure, but held firm with excellent team work. Our last line of defence in Steve Dillon Gary Holbrook and Barry Nicholas turned back many forward thrusts and their games were full of credit. The last quarter was set for a thrilling finish as the Royals led by only 9 points and Gosnells had the use of a freshening breeze. Players from both sides through themselves into the game as the teams matched goal for goal. The game had been played at a particularly fast rate and it was only natural that players began to tire. To our advantage our fitness held out and with Brian Thompson, being a sure avenue of attack, Kenwick kept the pressure on and with spectacular goals coming from Terry Gilbert and a real gem from Geoff Truscott, the Royals won their way into the final. Many players were well below their form and they'll have to realise in the finals that you either give all or you don't get another opportunity.

The Reserves this week come against a formidable adversary in Maddington, but its hoped they'll repeat their last performance.

Members and Supporters are reminded not to forget the after-game celebrations at Mills Park on Sunday.

Don't forget the end of season dinner to be held at the entertainment centre on the 1st October.

O.D.

THE HAWKS

A large crowd witnessed two games of high standard football in the 1st Semi at Gosnells Oval last Sunday when Gosnells League team were defeated in a thrilling match by 3 points by Kenwick and the Reserves mighty victory over Kelmscott. In the league the mighty Hawks looked the better side on the ground and dominated the play in the last three quarters, and in particular the third quarter when they kicked 1 - 9. It was in this quarter that we placed ourselves in a crucial situation by inaccurate kicking for the major score. Never the less it was a talented and courageous performance against a top side and I'm sure every member and supporter is proud of the team's effort. Best players were Arthur Jones on the wing, Sid Websdale roving, Barry Woodhead on the half forward flank and Garry Green at fullback.

The Reserves brilliant win featured intelligent use of the ball and all round team football finishing nine goals in front of Kelmscott. Best players were Steve Moore at full forward Len Marsh on the wing, Laurie Wenn at centre half forward and Graham Campbell at centre. congratulations to every player, keep up the same performance and you will take off the Grand Final.

A most deserving mention must be made of our Under 18's recent creditable effort when they defeated Kelmscott in the first semi the week before last. They were unfortunate to be defeated by Armadale in last week's preliminary final, however it was a highly successful year for the team. Special thanks and credit go to Lee Howden for his wonderful efforts in coaching the boys also to team manager Neville Barry and Trainer Neville Jenyns.

SOCIAL: We remind you that the Under 18's Windup will be held at the Percy Garratt Pavilion on Saturday September 18. The tickets for $5 a double are available from Keith Davis the club secretary.

Please be reminded to make your reservation for the club's Annual Windup and Presentation of trophies being held at Cannington Greyhound Raceway on October 15. A board has been placed in the clubrooms to reserve your requirements at the function. Tickets are only $20 a double and are available from Frank Sochacki, Colin Reynolds or Keith Davis. You can be assured of a great night out so please don't miss out.
